Teacher's guide for In search of April Raintree and April Raintree / Adamson, Pat.
Kopetsky, Lauree.
Subjects: Mosionier, Beatrice Culleton. In search of April Raintree. Métis women - Fiction - Study and teaching.
Notes: The content (language and graphic rape scene) may not be suitable for all readers. An abridged edition, April Raintree, was released in 1984 upon the request of the Native Education Branch of Manitoba Education and was revised with younger readers in mind. The unabridged version, In Search of April Raintree, should be considered for students in Grade 10 or above.
Summary: In Search of April Raintree is the story of two Métis sisters growing up in Winnipeg, Manitoba. They are taken from their home and family and each put into different foster homes. Yet, over the years, the bond between them grows. As they each make their way in a society that is, at times, indifferent, hostile, and violent, they both struggle to find their own identity.
