Gaudelli, William
Global citizenship education: every day transcendence
Subjects: International education. World citizenship—Study and teaching.
Summary: This book addresses the intersection of globalization, education and programmatic efforts to prepare young people to live in a more interdependent, complex and fragile world. It explores topics such as sustainability education, cultural diversity, and human rights education, offering critical insights into how these facets of GCE are interpreted around the world. The author blends theory and practice to provide both an overview of GCE and an examination of current efforts to develop more globally-conscious classrooms. Blending empirical research and practical illustrations, this volume encourages educators to take seriously their own call to prepare young people to engage global challenges with a sense of urgency.

Millennium development goal #2. Achieve universal primary education : learning and building together
Subjects: Education, Primary—Comic books, strips, etc. Early childhood education—Comic books, strips, etc.
Summary: Although it is a very small country, Burundi is one of the poorest countries in the world. Almost 80% of the population lives in poverty, and many children cannot afford to go to school. Instead, children must work and earn money to help buy food and basic necessities for their families. Read this comic about Emanuel’s life in Burundi, and find out how he and his friends were able to get an education. What problems does Emanuel have to face in Burundi’s new education system? How will the community work together to help educate the children? Teacher resources activity are included but are not officially approved.

Millennium development goal #3. Promote gender equality and empower women : women on the move
Subjects: Women—Comic books, strips, etc. Equality—Comic books, strips, etc.
Summary: Like many countries, Honduras has had an unstable political past, and continues to struggle with corruption in government. Women’s rights in Honduras are almost non-existent. With no place for women in politics, the country stands on an unstable foundation. In this comic, you will see just how hard life can be for women. Life is not easy for Roxanna and her mother. How will Roxanna’s mother change the path for women? And what lessons does she leave behind for her daughter?

372.83 M646
Millennium development goal #4 : Reduce child mortality : a world safe for children?
Subjects: Children—Comic books, strips, etc. Safety—Comic books, strips, etc.
Summary: Iraq used to be the golden capital of the Middle East, thriving with literature, art, science and innovation. However, oppressive regimes took over, eroding much of Iraqi culture and devastating much of the natural resources. As a result, conflict and wars erupted and many of the victims were children. In this comic, you will take a look at the life of the children of Iraq, and the effects that the wars have had on their lives. What were some of the issues that increased the mortality of the children? Can these issues be fixed to reduce child mortality, or is this a lost cause? Read Juhan’s story to find out more.

372.83 M646
Millennium development goal #5 : Improve maternal health : maternal health
Subjects: Postnatal care—Comic books, strips, etc. Prenatal care—Comic books, strips, etc.
Summary: With a burgeoning population of more than one billion people, many of whom live in poverty, access to health-care clinics and doctors in India is limited in general, let alone for pregnant women. As a result, being a mother in India can be very dangerous, as the life of both mother and baby in poverty can be at risk. Follow Chakori and her pregnant mother in this comic, and experience what life is like for some families living in India. Will Chakori’s mother be able to deliver a healthy and happy baby, or will she experience lots of bumps along the way of her pregnancy?

Millennium development goal #6 : Combat HIV/AIDS, malaria and other diseases :
Moshums saddest story
Subjects: Malaria—Comic books, strips, etc. AIDS (Disease)—Comic books, strips, etc. Diseases—Comic books, strips, etc.
Summary: Many Aboriginal people have been living under constant oppression in Canada. In this comic, Moshum (grandfather) tells Jessica stories from his past. He explains the suffering he and his family faced when white settlers took over First Nations land. Such incredible suffering resulted from being considered savages, being forced into Residential Schools, and from not being treated for easily treatable and curable diseases (such as TB). Read this comic and witness the life of Moshum and the challenges he faced growing up.

372.83 M646
Millennium development goal #7 : Ensure environmental sustainability : a forest in the desert
Subjects: Environmental protection—Comic books, strips, etc. Conservation of natural resources—Comic books, strips, etc.
Summary: More than ever the ecosystems that provide essential services are failing due to human activity. This comic takes a look at a small village in China, and the impact that deforestation and pollution have had on the survival of the forest and the surrounding natural habitat. Chen-Chi and her family work together to replant the forest, but will they be able to save the environment, or will human corruption like pollution, unsustainable development, and waste destroy their plan?

372.83 M646
Millennium development goal #8 : Develop a global partnership for development : a taste of justice

Subjects: Commercial treaties—Comic books, strips, etc.

Summary: The world is more connected today than it has ever been before. We are developing global partnerships with countries from all around the world, but it is important to remember that with partnerships must also come fairness. Have you ever wondered how chocolate is made? In this comic, see how Canada and Ghana work together through fair trade to produce delicious chocolate, and the effects that this fair trade has on the farmers and workers both in Ghana and in Canada.
