There’s a lot to consider when you’re planning to retire. Everyone’s situation, plans, dreams and expectations are unique and, like almost every important decision, there is no right answer that applies to everyone. To be sure you find the right answer for you, take the time to consider all the factors and get all the information and advice you need.

This booklet is intended to provide general information about the various teacher pension and benefit programs, as well as government programs that may impact your retirement situation. The retirement application process for both the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Retirement Plan and the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Plan is also included.

To be sure you’re basing your decision on the best information possible, you’re encouraged to contact the appropriate Federation and government departments and agencies directly. By doing so, you can get the most up-to-date information and ask questions about your specific situation. Contact information for all of the organizations referred to in this booklet are included in the Resources and Contacts section.

Although every effort has been made to ensure the information provided in this booklet is accurate at the time of publication, teacher programs and government programs are subject to change. In the event of any discrepancy, the applicable legislation, plan document or collective agreement is the final authority.

Planning for Retirement Seminars

If you’re retiring within the next three years, you may want to attend a Planning for Retirement seminar offered by the Federation. These seminars provide support and information that will assist you with the retirement process.

The dates and locations of upcoming seminars, as well as the online registration form, can be found on the Federation website. Visit www.stf.sk.ca > Professional Resources > Events Calendar. Pre-registration is required due to space limitations.

Please note, personal pension estimates are not provided as part of the Planning for Retirement seminars. However, if you’re a member of the STRP, you can get an estimate of what your pension could be at a future retirement date anytime using the STRP Pension Estimator. This online tool is available in the MySTF section of the Federation website.

If you’re within 12 months of your anticipated retirement date or you’re a member of the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Plan, contact your teacher pension plan directly to request a formal pension estimate.
Making the Retirement Decision

Can I Afford to Retire on My Pension?

The amount of money you’ll need to live comfortably after retirement will depend on your retirement lifestyle. Just as no two people will have exactly the same retirement needs and desires, no two people will have exactly the same retirement income, especially if you have other sources of income in addition to your teacher pension.

A financial planner may assist you in determining if your retirement income will meet your anticipated retirement needs.

Am I Ready to Retire?

While income is obviously a critical consideration, it is just one element of the answer to the question, “Am I really ready to retire?” Other factors include job satisfaction, health, outside interests and future plans. Consider the leisure activities you have thought about or planned.

The STS offers a Retirement Lifestyles Planning seminar which many teachers have found helpful. The seminar, offered in various locations throughout the province, is designed for teachers and their spouses or partners who are anywhere from one to 15 years from retirement. Attitudes, activities, health, housing, finances and other aspects of planning needed to help prepare for a happy retirement are discussed. Contact the STS office to find out more.

Think about the following questions:

1. What lifestyle do I want when I retire?
2. Will my pension and other income allow me to maintain my current standard of living?
3. If my savings earn a lower return, can I cut back on expenses?
4. Will I work part-time or volunteer during retirement?
5. Am I engaged in activities that will keep me physically fit in retirement?
6. Am I learning a new hobby or pursuing new interests that I will enjoy after retirement?
7. What activities will give me a sense of worth and usefulness when I am no longer employed?
8. Are there educational opportunities offered by local community colleges or other education programs?
9. Have I discussed my retirement hopes and dreams with my spouse to ensure we’re on the same page?
When Am I Eligible to Receive a Retirement Benefit?

You can choose to retire any time after meeting the eligibility requirements outlined below, as long as your contract of employment has terminated and you’re not receiving a disability benefit from the Income Continuance Plan.

There’s no requirement to stop working by a certain age (i.e., age 65). However, due to a Canada Revenue Agency requirement, the latest that you may start receiving your teacher pension is December of the year in which you turn age 71.

Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Plan

Unreduced Pension
- Age + Service = 85 (minimum age 55)
- 30 years’ eligibility service regardless of age
- 20 years’ eligibility service at age 60 or older
- One year or more of eligibility service at age 65

Reduced Pension
- 20 years’ eligibility service at age 55 or older

Saskatchewan Teachers’ Retirement Plan (STRP)

Unreduced Pension
- Age + Service = 85 (minimum age 55)
- 30 years’ eligibility service regardless of age
- 20 years’ eligibility service at age 60 or older
- One year or more of eligibility service at age 65

Reduced Pension
- One year of eligibility service at age 55 or older

Notes:
- Teachers on a full-time contract earn one day of eligibility service for each day worked.
- Teachers on a part-time contract earn a full month of eligibility service for each month in which they provide service.
- Substitute teachers earn one day of eligibility service for each day worked.

If you began teaching in Saskatchewan before July 1, 1980, you’re a member of the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Plan.

If you began teaching after June 30, 1980, or transferred from the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Plan before July 1, 1991, you’re a member of the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Retirement Plan (STRP).

If you’re not sure to which plan you belong, contact either plan office.
How Much Will I Receive?

Your teacher pension plan is a defined benefit plan. This means the retirement benefit you’ll receive is determined by a formula that takes into account your salary and service. If you’re not eligible for an unreduced pension when you retire, your benefit will be reduced to reflect your circumstances.

Your retirement benefit includes a monthly lifetime pension, as well as a monthly bridge benefit payable until you reach age 65. If you’re a member of the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Retirement Plan, no additional bridge benefits are earned after June 30, 2015.

Pension Estimates

If you’re a member of the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Retirement Plan, you can get a pension estimate anytime using the STRP Pension Estimator, an online tool available on the Federation website at www.stf.sk.ca. This tool allows you to get an estimate of how much your pension could be at a future retirement date.

If you’re within 12 months of your anticipated retirement date or you’re a member of the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Plan, contact your teacher pension plan directly to request a formal pension estimate. You’re encouraged to request an estimate at least six months before your planned retirement date.

Income Smoothing/Upward Adjustment Option

If you retire before age 65, you may elect the income smoothing payment option. This payment option provides an increase in the monthly pension paid before age 65 and a reduction to the monthly pension you receive after age 65. The intent of the income smoothing option is to assist members in smoothing out the income they receive from different sources throughout retirement.

If you choose this option, the reduction to your pension at age 65 occurs regardless of when you apply for or how much you actually receive from government programs.

Each member’s personal situation is different; therefore, you’re encouraged to carefully consider whether taking this option is in your best interest. Before making a decision regarding the income smoothing option, here are some factors to consider:

- Expected financial needs prior to and following age 65.
- Any income tax considerations.
- Expected retirement income from other sources. Contact Service Canada regarding your eligibility for and the retirement benefits payable from government programs such as Old Age Security and Canada Pension Plan.
- Your life expectancy.
Cost-of-Living Adjustments

After you retire, cost-of-living adjustments are applied to your pension benefit each January. The amount of this adjustment is determined as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Pension Benefit</th>
<th>COLA</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Total benefit</td>
<td>Guaranteed COLA equal to 80% of the change* in the Consumer Price Index for Canada</td>

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The level of conditional COLA granted is subject to the financial status of the pension plan and approval by the STF Executive.

* For the 12-month period ending October 31 of the calendar year previous to the adjustment taking effect.

On January 1 of the first year of retirement, the adjustment applies only to that portion of the year for which the pension was paid. For example, if you start to collect your pension in July, your pension will be adjusted in January for six months (July to December) or 50 percent of the indexing factor. The following January 1 you will receive the full increase.

Voluntary Pension Contributions

Voluntary contributions made to the STRP must remain in the Plan until the earliest of your retirement or termination from the Plan. Voluntary contributions made to the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Plan can remain in that Plan until December of the year in which you reach age 71. You’re entitled to one of the following:

- A lump-sum refund of your voluntary contributions plus interest (if the funds are not locked in by legislation).
• A transfer of the voluntary contributions plus interest to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP) or other registered plan approved under the Income Tax Act, provided the full amount of the voluntary contributions and related interest is refunded to you or transferred for an immediate annuity by December of the year in which you turn age 71.

Locked-in voluntary contributions are available only as a transfer to a registered pension plan or a prescribed RRSP. Please contact your pension administrator for more details.

For STRP members, non-locked in voluntary contributions or voluntary contributions locked-in under The Pension Benefits Act, 1992, can be used to purchase eligibility service, such as parenting leave, education leave and deferred salary leave.
Government Programs That May Affect Your Retirement Situation

Retirement programs supported by the federal government include the Canadian Pension Plan and Old Age Security. The following sections summarize current regulations, eligibility requirements and benefits.

You’re encouraged to get an estimate of your CPP and OAS pension before deciding to begin these benefits. You can view and update your personal CPP and OAS information online by accessing My Service Canada Account. To register for an account, visit www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/publicpensions/index.html.

Canada Pension Plan

The standard age for beginning to receive your CPP retirement pension is the month after your 65th birthday. However, you can take a reduced pension as early as age 60 or begin receiving an increased pension after age 65. You must apply for your CPP retirement pension.

If you start your CPP pension at age 65
If you begin your CPP retirement pension at age 65, you’ll receive the full amount to which you are entitled based on your earnings and CPP contributions. For 2018, the maximum CPP retirement pension at age 65 is $1,134.17 per month.

If you start your CPP pension before age 65
If you begin your CPP retirement pension between age 60 and 65, your CPP pension will be reduced by 0.6 percent for each month you receive it before age 65. For example, if you start your CPP pension at age 60, your pension will be reduced by 36 percent. This reduction is permanent.

If you start your CPP pension after age 65
If you delay receiving your CPP retirement pension until after age 65, your pension will be increased by 0.7 percent for each month after age 65 that you wait, up to age 70. The CPP retirement pension for a person who begins collecting it at age 70 will be 42 percent higher than it would have been if the person had begun receiving it at age 65.

Old Age Security Program

The Old Age Security pension is available upon application if you:

- Are 65 years of age or older (you do not need to be retired).
- Are a legal resident of Canada.
- Have lived in Canada a minimum of 10 years since your 18th birthday.

The OAS pension benefit is indexed quarterly to reflect changes in the Canadian Consumer Price Index. As at July 1, 2018, the maximum OAS benefit was $596.67 per month.
You can defer receiving your OAS pension for up to 60 months (five years) after the date you become eligible to receive it, in exchange for a higher monthly amount. Your monthly OAS pension will be increased by 0.6 percent for every month you delay receiving it, up to a maximum of 36 percent at age 70. If you choose to defer receiving your OAS pension, you will not be eligible for the Guaranteed Income Supplement.

If your net income for tax purposes exceeds a specified maximum, you’ll need to repay all or a portion of your OAS benefit. Please contact Service Canada for more information.

Federal Guaranteed Income Supplement

A monthly supplement is payable to seniors who receive the OAS pension, have little or no income, and submit an application for benefits. The supplement is based on income and marital status, and is included with the monthly OAS pension payment.

Provincial Guaranteed Income Supplement

Some provincial and territorial governments provide additional supplements based on need and continued residency requirements. Under the Saskatchewan Seniors Income Plan, any Saskatchewan resident age 65 or older who receives the full federal OAS benefit and Guaranteed Income Supplement will automatically receive benefits. Individuals receiving a partial Guaranteed Income Supplement may have income levels too high to qualify for benefits. For more information, contact the Saskatchewan Seniors Income Plan. Contact information is included in the Resources and Contacts section.

Registered Retirement Savings Plans

By the end of the year in which you turn age 71, you must choose one of the following options for your RRSPs:

- Cash in your RRSP (subject to income tax).
- Transfer them to a Registered Retirement Income Fund (RRIF).
- Use them to purchase an annuity.
Insurance Coverage After Retirement

Health and Dental Coverage

It is important to consider your health-care needs and provide for them prior to retiring.

Coverage under the Teachers’ Dental Plan and the Members’ Health Plan ends at midnight on your last day of employment.

If you return to teach under a continuous, replacement or temporary contract, your health and dental coverage will be reinstated. You will be eligible for benefits for the duration of your contract starting with the first paid teaching day of the contract.

Retired teachers are eligible to purchase health and dental coverage under a group benefit plan offered by the Superannuated Teachers of Saskatchewan or through private group plans. STS coverage may be purchased within 60 days of retirement without medical evidence or at a later date with medical evidence. The STS office will be happy to provide complete details.

Life Insurance

Review your life insurance needs prior to retirement.

Teachers’ Group Life Insurance Plan

Retired teachers are deemed to have elected to continue their term life and accident coverage through the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Commission until age 65, at which time coverage is reduced by 90 percent and remains at that reduced level until it ends at age 85.

The full premium is deducted over 12 months from your pension, unless the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Commission receives written notification from you by August 31 of the year in which you wish the insurance to be discontinued.

Coverage and premiums as at September 1, 2017, are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

<tbody>

</tbody>
</table>
If you decide not to continue your life insurance coverage under the Teachers’ Group Life Insurance Plan when your contract ends, a 31-day conversion period follows during which your teaching coverage remains in force. During this 31-day period, you may apply to convert your group life insurance to an individual policy with the insurance carrier without providing medical evidence of good health, provided you are under age 66. Premium rates will be based on the insurance company’s individual policy rates in effect at the time the application is made.

Portaplan (Voluntary Insurance Plan)

Portaplan is a voluntary life insurance plan offering term life, accident and dependant life insurance to Saskatchewan teachers and their family members at group rates.

You’re not required to be employed under contract to purchase or maintain this insurance. Also, coverage can continue if you change careers or move anywhere in the world.

Each unit of term life insurance provides $20,000 of coverage and you can purchase up to a maximum of $400,000 (20 units) until age 70. The unit value reduces automatically at ages 71, 76 and 81. Accident insurance is also available.

Any new or additional Portaplan insurance must be purchased before your 65th birthday and you must be a resident of Canada at the time of purchase. Medical evidence of insurability is required.

Your spouse may also apply for their own policy or to increase their present coverage, as long as Portaplan receives their application prior to their 65th birthday. Your spouse must be a resident of Canada and medical evidence of insurability is required. You do not need to be a Portaplan policyholder in order for your spouse to apply for this insurance.

Any of your children who are age 16 or older but less than age 26 and who are residents of Canada may apply for their own policy. Evidence of good health is not required for the first $60,000 (three units) of term life insurance on initial application. This is insurance they’re able to maintain regardless of the career path they choose or where they eventually reside. You don’t need to be a Portaplan policyholder in order for your dependent children to apply. Also, you can add dependant life insurance to your policy, your spouse’s policy or to both policies. Dependant life insurance provides $20,000 life insurance on your spouse (or you, if it’s your spouse’s policy) and $5,000 life insurance coverage on each eligible dependent child, regardless of the number of dependent children you have.
You may also assign your Portaplan term life insurance proceeds to any financial institution in Canada to secure your mortgage, rather than taking the usually more expensive insurance provided through your lending institution.

For more information about the voluntary insurance available through Portaplan, please contact Portaplan. You’ll find complete contact information in the Resources and Contacts section.

Disability Insurance

Your disability coverage under the Income Continuance Plan ends when you’re receiving a retirement benefit from the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Retirement Plan or the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Plan. Also, if you return to teach after you retire, you will not be eligible for disability coverage.
Teaching After Retirement

If you’re considering teaching after you retire, you should know that:

• No break is required between retirement and returning to teach.
• Contracts of employment are governed by The Education Act, 1995.

If you return to teach under contract after retiring, you become eligible for coverage under the Teachers’ Dental Plan and the Members’ Health Plan. A qualification period (completion of 20 full or partial days of teaching service) will be required if there has been a break in service of more than 120 days. Coverage is retroactive to the first teaching day of your new contract. You must complete an STF Enrolment form to re-enrol in these plans.

It’s important that you inform your employing school board that you’re receiving a pension to ensure that only the applicable deductions are made from your salary.

You should expect at least the following deductions from your salary:

• STF fees
• Employment Insurance premiums
• CPP contributions
• Income tax

The following deductions should not be withheld from your salary:

• Pension plan contributions
• Income Continuance Plan premiums (retirees are not eligible to participate in this plan)
• Teachers’ Group Life Insurance premiums (premiums are deducted from your pension cheque)

Government Programs

Post-retirement employment may qualify you for regular Employment Insurance (EI) benefits if you have accumulated sufficient insurable hours since your retirement. Your EI benefit would not be affected by your pension income. For further information, contact Employment Insurance.

You don’t have to stop working to be eligible for CPP. However, if you continue teaching, CPP contributions are required until age 65, even if you’re receiving a CPP retirement pension. If you’re aged 65 to 70 and work while receiving your CPP retirement pension, you have the option of continuing to make CPP contributions. These contributions will increase your CPP retirement benefit, even if you’re receiving the maximum benefit amount.
Survivor Benefits

In the event of your death after retirement, your eligible beneficiaries may receive a survivor benefit from your pension plan.

For the purpose of determining eligibility for survivor benefits:

Spouse is a person to whom you’re legally married, or if you’re not legally married, a person with whom you have been cohabiting continuously as a spouse for at least one year.

Dependent children are those who are:

1. Under 18 years of age;
2. Under 25 years of age, unmarried and attending an approved educational institution on a full-time basis; or
3. Over 18 years of age and dependent upon you by reason of mental or physical infirmity.

Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Plan

A survivor allowance equal to 60 percent of the pension you are receiving when you die will be paid to your eligible spouse at the time of your death. A marriage after your retirement entitles that spouse to the survivor benefits.

Eligible children and dependent parents may also be entitled to survivor benefits.

If no survivor benefits are payable to an eligible spouse, eligible dependent children or dependent parents, your last-named beneficiary or estate will receive your contributions and interest, less the aggregate sum of the pension allowance and disability benefits paid up to your date of death.

Saskatchewan Teachers’ Retirement Plan

A survivor pension equal to 60 percent of the pension you are receiving when you die will be paid to your eligible spouse, unless your spouse waives entitlement to this benefit. Your spouse must submit a waiver form no more than 90 days before you retire to waive the surviving spousal pension. Your eligible spouse is determined at the time of your retirement. A person who becomes your spouse after you retire is not entitled to a surviving spousal pension.

When you retire, the lifetime pension you earned after June 30, 2015, will be reduced to provide for the surviving spousal pension for that period, unless your spouse submits the waiver form. There is no adjustment to the pension you earned before June 30, 2015.
Dependent children and dependent parents may also be entitled to survivor benefits.

If no survivor benefits are payable to an eligible spouse, eligible dependent children or dependent parents, your last-named beneficiary or estate will receive your contributions and interest, less the aggregate sum of the retirement benefits paid up to your date of death.

For more information about survivor benefits, please contact your pension plan.

Government Survivor Benefits

Canada Pension Plan

CPP survivor benefits, such as a death benefit, survivor’s pension and children’s benefits, may be paid to your estate, surviving spouse and dependent children after your death.

Spouse’s Allowance and Widowed Spouse’s Allowance (Allowance and Allowance for the Survivor)

The allowance, which also includes an allowance for persons whose spouse or common-law partner has died, is available to applicants between the ages of 60 and 64. The benefit is subject to an income test and continued residency requirements.
Once you’ve made the decision to retire, there are a number of important steps to follow. A little planning and attention to the details can help smooth the transition and ensure that you receive all the benefits to which you’re entitled.

Prior to resigning from your contract you should:

1. Request an estimate of your retirement benefit from your pension plan.

2. Consider the purchase of any outstanding eligible pension service.
   Review your pension estimate and ask yourself the following questions:
   - Is part-time service prior to July 1, 1991 included?
     Each month that part-time service is provided under contract is considered as a full month for purposes of eligibility for a pension, to a maximum of 10 months in a school year. To count part-time service prior to July 1, 1991, for eligibility purposes, you must obtain a letter from your employing board stating the commencement and termination dates of your contract, and send the letter to your pension plan administrator. This information may advance the date when you become eligible for an unreduced pension.
   - Have you considered the purchase of any outstanding eligible pensionable service?
     Purchasing eligible periods of parenting leaves, compassionate care leave, full-time attendance at university or outside service (such as band school) could increase the amount of your retirement pension. On written request, your pension plan will provide the amount required to purchase such service. You can then decide whether or not to proceed. Any purchases must be done prior to retirement.
   - Did you teach outside of Saskatchewan during your career?
     If you taught elsewhere in Canada, you might be eligible to combine your pension credits in a single plan. This may allow you to retire sooner with a combined pension.

The STRP and STSP have a reciprocal transfer agreement with teacher pension plans in the provinces of Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Ontario, Prince Edward Island and Quebec. The STRP and STSP also have reciprocal transfer agreements with certain pension plans in Saskatchewan. Transfers under the agreements are a complex process and take several months to complete. If you’re retiring this year, contact your pension plan immediately to see if these options are available to you.

If you have service with another pension plan and are interested in determining whether you’re eligible to transfer this service to your teacher plan, please contact your teacher plan directly.
3. Contact Service Canada regarding CPP and OAS benefits available to you. Alternatively, you can view and update your CPP and OAS information online by accessing My Service Canada Account at www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/publicpensions/index.html.

4. Review your health, dental and life insurance needs. Contact the Superannuated Teachers of Saskatchewan office if you’re interested in their post-retirement health and dental coverage. Contact the Portaplan office if you’re interested in supplemental insurance coverage for you and your family.

Notice of Resignation

You must submit a letter of resignation to your employing school board giving notice of your intention to retire. In return, you should receive a signed letter from your school board accepting your resignation and indicating the effective date. Your pension plan will require a copy of the letter from your school board when you apply for your pension.

Some school boards and local agreements offer retirement or early notification incentives or gratuity. To qualify for such incentives or gratuity, you may be asked to provide your employer with additional information regarding your retirement, such as proof of eligibility to retire. Please confirm with your employer whether any additional information should be submitted with your letter of resignation.

Minimum Notice Period

Your letter of resignation must be submitted to your employing school board no later than 30 days prior to your planned retirement date (e.g., May 31 for a termination effective June 30; November 22 for a termination effective December 22).

Early Notice

If you submit your resignation earlier than the required 30 days, a clause should be included in your letter that will postpone your termination date if you become ill prior to the minimum 30-day notice period.

Including acknowledgement of Clause 7.5.6.3 of the 2013-2017 Provincial Collective Bargaining Agreement in your letter of resignation will postpone your date of termination under these circumstances until your accumulated sick leave has expired, you’re no longer sick or you enter into a contract of employment with another school board, whichever occurs first. By postponing your termination date, you will protect your entitlement to certain benefits such as sick leave, disability insurance, health and dental insurance, and pension accrual up to the altered termination date.

If your school board offers a retirement or early notification incentive or gratuity, you may be required to submit your letter of resignation earlier than the minimum 30-day notice period in order to qualify for the incentive.
What to Include in Your Letter of Resignation

A letter of resignation for the purpose of retiring may include one or more of the following conditions:

1. Acknowledgement that you will receive the retirement gratuity or retirement incentive that is offered at the discretion of the board or as set out in the local association collective bargaining agreement. Use the terminology appropriate to your school division (e.g., gratuity or incentive; board policy or local association agreement).

2. A mutually agreed upon new contract of employment with the same school division following your resignation. (If a return to employment is within three months of the effective termination date, accumulated sick leave is reinstated as set out in Clause 7.5.2.3(b) of the 2013-2017 Provincial Collective Bargaining Agreement).

3. Postponement or alteration of your termination date, if early notice is provided and you become ill before the required minimum 30-day notice period. (See Early Notice on the previous page.)

Sample letters of resignation are provided on the following pages, which address various circumstances.
Dear [Director of Education]:

I hereby submit my resignation for the purpose of retirement effective June 30, 20_______, subject to the condition that I shall receive the retirement gratuity (or incentive) as per the local collective agreement (or as per board policy) [clause or policy number].

Applying for Your Pension

Step 1 – Request an application package from your pension plan

It is recommended that you request a retirement application package at least six months before your anticipated retirement date to allow time for the completion and collection of all documents required.

To obtain a retirement application package, members of the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Retirement Plan must complete a Pension Estimate Request form and mail, email or fax it to the STRP. Members of the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Plan should contact the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Commission.

Please allow up to two months to process your application.

Step 2 – Gather the necessary documents

When submitting your completed pension application, be sure you have included the following:

- A copy of the letter from your employing school board accepting your resignation and indicating the effective date. (Applicants are encouraged to forward their forms while waiting to receive this letter in order to begin processing applications).
- The original or a certified* copy of your birth certificate or government-issued identification indicating your birthdate.
- The original or a certified* copy of your spouse’s birth certificate.
- The original or a notarized copy of your marriage certificate (STSP only).
*STSP requires notarized copies of these documents

Step 3 – Complete the necessary forms

Please ensure you complete the forms specific to your pension plan.

You will need to complete:

- Application for Retirement Pension/Allowance
- TD1 Personal Tax Credits Return
- TD1SK Saskatchewan Personal Tax Credits Return
- Appointment of Nominee/Beneficiary Designation
- Group Life Insurance Beneficiary Update (if applicable)
- Direct Deposit Information
- STF Change of Information form
- Teachers’ Dental Plan Change of Information form
- Purchase of Service Waiver (STRP only)
- Spouse’s Waiver of 60% Post-Retirement Survivor Benefit (completed by spouse, if applicable, no more than 90 days before retirement – STRP only)

Be sure to keep a copy of the completed application and documents for your personal records.

Step 4 – Mail your completed forms and supporting documentation

Mail in the completed forms and the supporting documentation to your pension plan. When the plan has received your documentation and your final pension information from your school board, your pension benefits will be calculated. Your monthly pension will be paid on the last banking day of each month.
The Superannuated Teachers of Saskatchewan

The STS provides a host of services and supports for superannuated teachers throughout the province. This independent organization of retired teachers is dedicated to promoting the welfare of all superannuated teachers and to maintaining the ties that bind them to fellow professionals.

The STS:

• Provides vital, affordable health and dental benefits for superannuates.
• Plays an active role in educational affairs through its own independent efforts.
• Provides input into provincial collective bargaining when superannuation and the welfare of retired teachers are at stake through eight STS councillors on the Council of the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Federation.
• Offers social events and the chance to interact with other superannuates through 42 active chapters in large and small communities throughout the province and in British Columbia.

Membership in the STS can be one of the first, and best, retirement investments you can make. Anyone receiving or having received a pension under the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Superannuation Plan or the Saskatchewan Teachers’ Retirement Plan may belong to the STS, including surviving spouses. Teachers retired under other provincial or federal plans who live in Saskatchewan may also belong to the STS.

Each year the STS organizes an annual general meeting which provides STS members with an opportunity to:

• Discuss the progress of the STS.
• Deal with issues of interest to members through workshops and guest speakers.
• Submit resolutions to the Federation, governments and non-governmental bodies.
• Renew professional contacts with friends and former colleagues.

To keep members informed, the STS publishes Outreach, a newsletter produced five times per year. The STS also participates with the Federation in Planning for Retirement seminars for teachers retiring or planning to retire.

The STS is affiliated with the Canadian Association of Retired Teachers (ACER-CART) which promotes the interest of all retired teachers in Canada and makes submissions to the Government of Canada. Advocating for fairness in taxation of seniors is an example of this. The STS administers an extended health and dental plan. They are also a founding member of the Saskatchewan Seniors Mechanism, an “organization of organizations” which co-ordinates efforts towards the well-being of all Saskatchewan seniors.
STS Local Chapters

STS chapters meet regularly to discuss issues of concern, to maintain valued contacts with former colleagues and to enjoy a time of fellowship. Chapter activities differ widely and may include speakers, tours, picnics, potluck meals, socials, parties and banquets. Additional activities may include provincial recreational events which are held annually for bowling, golfing, curling, fishing, quilting retreats and Kaiser tournaments.

Many chapters are active in the volunteer work of the community, such as UNICEF, Meals-on-Wheels, hospital visiting, community history and folklore. If you are eligible for membership, please contact the STS office for the location of your nearest chapter.

The annual fee to the provincial STS is $30, which includes a subscription to Outreach. Each STS chapter receives a rebate from the $30 provincial membership fee. Superannuates who live in areas without a chapter or who are unable to attend meetings may become non-chapter members for the fee of $30, which also includes an annual subscription to Outreach.

- An application form and authorization to have the fee deducted from pension cheques ($2.50 per month) may be obtained from the STS office, 2311 Arlington Avenue, Saskatoon SK S7J 2H8 or on their website at www.sts.sk.ca.
