FOR MEMBERS

For over 90 years, the Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation has worked to support STF members and advocated for excellence in public education. The Federation is a professional organization with over 13,500 trusted and respected educators throughout the province.

We work to represent and advocate on behalf of all teachers, while also supporting individual aspirations and needs. Our comprehensive programs, services and resources are designed to support your well-being and success. By doing so, we work to ensure the success of all teachers and students in Saskatchewan.

SUPPORTING PUBLIC EDUCATION

As highlighted in The Teachers' Federation Act, 2006, the STF is dedicated to enhancing the quality of education in Saskatchewan and supporting our members. These goals are achieved by:

- Advocating on behalf of all members and public education.
- Supporting the rights, interests and well-being of all students, teachers, schools and communities.
- Representing members and the teaching profession with the highest standard.
- Supporting lifelong learning of members.
- Supporting teachers by providing high-quality service to fulfil their professional needs.
- Administering pension and benefit plans for members and their families.
- Governing and administering the affairs of our Federation with integrity.

MEMBER SUPPORTS AND SERVICES
