Media are invited to join a virtual media availability tomorrow morning with Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation President Samantha Becotte. Becotte will provide an update on negotiations between teachers and the Government-Trustee Bargaining Committee. After two days of difficult negotiations, the Government-Trustee Bargaining Committee has presented its final offer. The Teachers' Bargaining Committee, along with the STF Executive, has decided to bring the final offer to STF members for a vote.

The final offer includes:

- A three-year agreement.
- Salary increases of 3 percent in year one; 3 percent in year two; and 2 percent in year three with retroactive pay to September 2023.
- Reference to the accountability framework in relation to a Memorandum of Understanding among the three parties.
